Version 4: Published 04-MAY-2016 Page | 4 of 7 Owner: Office of Ministry

There has been strain on the congregation due to lack of leadership from the current interim pastor. This has created a somewhat divided congregation. This has been an ongoing issue since our full time pastor left many years ago.

How does your congregation handle conflict/tension? Which of the following do you think best describes your congregation? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

As a church, we respect and listen to each other and work things through without generating divisiveness.
As a church, we try to respect and listen to each other, but it is not uncommon for differences of opinion to be a problem and for some people to choose sides. Some have left our church because of conflict. Conflict hurts our sense of unity, but we tend not to talk about it.

Painful experience with conflict has been present, but it has been worked through, and we have learned from the experience.

We have had some painful experiences with conflict, and they linger in the background.

Open conflict is present, and we need a minister who can help us deal with it.

What was the nature of the relationship between your last pastor and the congregation? Positive? Struggling? Cooperative? Tense?

]Tense and a struggle with our interim pastor.

How did your council/congregational leaders work together with your last pastor? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

Leadership is shared, with shared decision-making
