Indicate the type of community in which your congregation is located (is it small town, small city, suburban, large city, farming, industrial, etc.).

Oregon IL is a small town of 3500 with a vibrant downtown, K-12 public schools are all located within the city limits; 35 miles from a mall and shopping district as well as 3 major hospitals in Rockford, IL. Oregon has medical offices and a pharmacy along with a grocery store, several family restaurants as well as fast-food venues. Three state parks provide camping and hiking. The Rock River runs through the town providing fishing, canoeing and kayaking.

Describe the congregation's ethnic composition and age distribution.

Does the congregation have a clear vision for mission — a clear and shared understanding of where God is leading you? If so, state it as succinctly as possible.

Our mission statement is: Loving Christ, Sharing Christ, Trusting Christ

Our vision statement is: To be a supportive family of believers striving to be Christ-like to our neighbors.

What are the primary goals of your congregation?

We would like to increase our community involvement; hoping that will increase our youth involvement and maybe our membership. We look forward to developing a cohesive yoking relationship with St John's Lutheran in Creston.

Describe your congregation's worship practice (liturgy, hymns, vestments, music, hymnals, and frequency of Holy Communion).or.

We primarily use Setting 1 in LBW and occasionally Service 5 in WOV (and have used others). We have one service which meets on Sunday morning. We do not have a choir at present; but do have a Howell pipe organ as well as a piano and clavinova. We sing 3 hymns/services and enjoy hymn sings on occasional Sundays when we do not have a pastor. We offer communion every Sunday. We have midweek Lenten services, using the Holden Evening Prayer service and preceded by soup suppers. We are presently yoking with St John's, Creston and are changing our service times quarterly (either 8:30 or 11:30 a.m.) In 2023 we will change service times every four months.

Describe your congregation's Christian education ministry.

Our Sunday School is very small at present - 4 children. In the past we have offered Sunday School Christmas programs as well as having the children sing during services occasionally. We co-host VBS with several community churches. We offer adult Sunday School and weekly Bible Study. We do not have a confirmation class at present (no age appropriate youth).

Describe the congregation's current activities for mission and outreach.

A small, but dedicated, group meets to sew quilts for Disaster Response and lap robes for two of the local nursing homes. We also donate 20-30 health and school kits each year to NALC Disaster Response. We participate in Operation Christmas Child and donate to several local charities at Christmas time. We give 25% of our benevolence to a different local organization each month. We participate in Honey Sales for the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch. We have an endowment fund that annually disburses money to our high school graduates/college students as well as global and local charities. Our church also supplies a meeting space for AA organizations.

The NALC is committed to moving away from an institutional understanding of the Church, to the biblical commission to be a community of followers of Jesus who focus on being disciples and making disciples. Which best describes your congregation's understanding of this movement? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

- Totally unaware
- X Have heard about it
- Have been involved personally
- Some in the congregation are involved, some aren't
- Congregation understands, is on-board and involved

List the Top Five Things your congregation hopes for in its next Pastor

1. Christ Centered/Spiritual Leader - leads worship well and makes the Bible come alive
2. Strong Communication Skills - extrovert, self-starter
3. Leadership/Character - approachable, good listener
4. Personal Outreach - equip laity for ministry, delegator, recruiting skills
5. Administrative Skills - visits w/everyone, not just shut-ins, involved with community, good with children

What were the three most significant events in your congregation's history? Provide the years in which these events happened and why they are important to your congregation.

In 1998 we had a special hymn commissioned for our church's 150th anniversary.

2010 when the congregation voted to leave the ELCA and in 2012 voted to join the NALC

2023 we will celebrate our 175th anniversary

Has your congregation participated in the Congregational Workshop Preparatory to the Call Process? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

Yes No

What were the three most significant results of the workshop?

1. Good congregational involvement
2. Everyone was involved in the conversation and discussions
3. Good/honest discussion about past and future pastors

Describe the nature and extent of any significant current or recent conflict in the congregation. Is this conflict resolved, or ongoing? If resolved, how was it resolved?

Several years ago we looked at purchasing a neighboring church's building due to our location. We had several meetings and tours of the building. We voted and resolved to stay where we are. Recently the discussion to hire a full or part-time pastor. We again had several informational Q & A meetings, followed by a vote.

How does your congregation handle conflict/tension? Which of the following do you think best describes your congregation? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

- As a church, we respect and listen to each other and work things through without generating divisiveness.
- As a church, we try to respect and listen to each other, but it is not uncommon for differences of opinion to be a problem and for some people to choose sides. Some have left our church because of conflict.
- Conflict hurts our sense of unity, but we tend not to talk about it.
- Painful experience with conflict has been present, but it has been worked through, and we have learned from the experience.
- We have had some painful experiences with conflict, and they linger in the background.
- Open conflict is present, and we need a minister who can help us deal with it.
- Other (describe).....

What was the nature of the relationship between your last pastor and the congregation? Positive? Struggling? Cooperative? Tense?

Struggling, tense, unapproachable, introvert, who used "boxed" or "canned" sermons. He was not a people person.

How did your council/congregational leaders work together with your last pastor? [Type an X by the appropriate response]

- Leadership is shared, with shared decision-making
- Pastor makes important decisions
- Council makes decisions with pastoral input
- Council makes decisions without pastoral input

We are currently in the process of establishing a yoking agreement with St John's Creston. As this is a new relationship and our needs are undetermined, a financial package will be determined at a later date.

When the Congregational Vacancy List is updated, a short paragraph (3-4 sentences) is included announcing each congregation's ministry. This paragraph is the first contact with pastors being introduced to your congregation and community. Since you are most familiar with your congregation and your community, you will want to showcase or highlight the attractions of your congregation and community.

We will be yoking with St John's Lutheran in Creston, IL (25 miles from Oregon), so please also read and consider their profile.

St Paul is a small church in a beautiful small town surrounded by three state parks, a river and an abundance of nature's natural beauty. In 2023 we will celebrate our 175th anniversary. We hope to call a full-time pastor but are open to considering part-time to allow us to interview all who hear God's call. We currently have one service on Sunday morning, commune every Sunday and use Setting 1 in the LBW. We also have soup suppers and Wednesday evening services during Lent, using the Holden Evening Prayer Service. St Paul's benevolence is split between the NALC, Rock Rescue Mission, and a different local recipient each month. We also donate 30 plus quilts/year and 60 health/school kits to Disaster Response as well as participate in the Shoe Box Ministry and make lap robes for local nursing homes. Since being without a pastor we have been yoking with other NALC churches nearby. Yoking with St John's has proven to be a good working relationship. We are anxious to fill our pulpit with a pastor who will fill our hearts with God's love so we will want to share that love with others.

Consider filming a video to be included with your Congregational Profile on the NALC website Vacancy List. We invite your call committee to make a 3-5 minute video introducing prospective pastoral candidates to your context and congregation. The video can be informal, explaining what your congregation is seeking in a pastor and showing images of the members of your congregation and your worship environment. Here are some sample videos: Example One, Example Two. These samples were not produced by the NALC. They are both simply examples of the type of content you could include in a video.

Video Submission Instructions:

Upload your video to YouTube or Vimeo. (Here are instructions on how to upload to YouTube: wikihow.com/Upload-a-Video-to-YouTube.) Include a link to the video below. Make sure the link allows for public access to the video.
